

TRINITY UNIVERSITY

← TO I.H. 10

HILDEBRAND AVENUE

TO MCALLISTER FRWY →

ADDITIONAL PARKING IN ALAMO STADIUM

Accessibility routes and entrances are available online at www.trinity.edu or from Counseling Services. (210) 999-7411.

PARKING LEGEND
(LOTS DESIGNATED BY LETTERS)

STUDENT AREAS: B, H, O, P, S, T, U, V, W, X, Y, Z, and Orange Level in Laurie Auditorium.

FACULTY AREAS: C, E, F, G, L, and M; Green and Yellow levels in Laurie Auditorium. Faculty may park in student lots when space is not available in these areas. Any lower campus area not specifically restricted is also available.

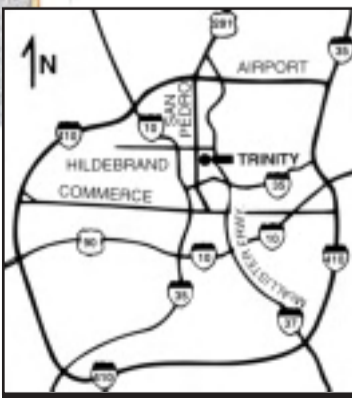

STAFF AREAS: All three levels of Laurie, plus lots F, O, P, S, T, U, V, X, Y, Z.

ACCESSIBILITY AREAS: Designated spaces in A, C, D, E, G, O, S, T, U, V, Y, Z; all three levels of Laurie; Heidi Circle, and Prassel Hall.

VISITOR AREAS: Designated spaces in lots A, B, E, F, G, P, S, U, Z.

CONFERENCES/SPECIAL PROGRAMS: Lot D and by arrangement.

ADMISSIONS / FINANCIAL AID: Lot Z

Best access to campus is from U.S. 281 McAllister Freeway from north (airport) or from south to Hildebrand or Mulberry exits.

San Antonio, Texas

CAMPUS GUIDE LEGEND

■ Campus Facilities

- 1. Northrup Hall—Houses most administrative offices plus the departments of English and modern languages and literatures.
- 2. Coates University Center—Houses campus information desk, the Commons dining facility, Tiger's Den, campus post office, book store, Fiesta Room, Skyline Room, plus the offices of Alumni Relations, Counseling and Career Services, Campus Publications, and various campus meeting rooms.
- 3. Ruth Taylor Fine Arts Center—
 - 3a. Smith Music Building—Houses department of music, classrooms, practice studios, and 320-seat recital hall.
 - 3b. Dicke Art Building—Houses the department of art and art history including studio space for sculpture, painting, ceramics, and photography, as well as gallery exhibition space.
 - 3c. Ruth Taylor Theater—Houses the department of speech and drama, the 500-seat Stieren Theater, and the intimate Attic and Cafe Theaters.
- 4. Laurie Auditorium—Seats 2,700 and includes three levels of parking.
- 5. Richardson Communications Center—Located within the Laurie Auditorium complex. Houses the department of communication, studios for radio/TV production, and KRTU-FM radio station.
- 6. Coates Library—With more than 906,000 books and bound periodicals, is one of the largest private libraries in the Southwest. Houses a state-of-the-art Information Commons and Paw Prints, the campus print facility; Archives and Rare Books Room; Instructional Media Services.
- 7. Halsell Building—Houses the department of computer science and the Information Technology Service.
- 8. Chapman Center—Houses the departments of business administration, health care administration, classical studies, economics, history, international studies, philosophy, and religion. Includes the 254-seat Chapman Auditorium, the Great Hall, and the Gold Room.
- 9. Cowles Life Science Building—Houses classrooms, science laboratories, and the departments of sociology and anthropology, psychology and biology.
- 10. Cobb-Racy Building—Houses science lecture hall, Office of Campus Safety,
- 11. Moody Engineering Science Building—Houses the departments of engineering science, chemistry, and various laboratories.
- 12. Marrs McLean Science Center—Houses departments of physics and astronomy, geosciences, and mathematics. Observatory located on roof.
- 13. Parker Chapel—The 600-seat sanctuary houses a 109-rank organ, one of the largest in the Southwest. Adorned with beautiful tapestries and other art objects. Interdenominational services are conducted throughout the academic year.
- 14. Storch Memorial Building—Original University library. Remodeled in 1980 to house departments of education and political science.
- 15. Elizabeth Rhea Health Services—Staffed by registered nurses. Site of clinics three times a week. Services include nursing assessment and care of illness, injuries, and appropriate medical and dental referrals.
- 16. Holt Conference Center—Located at 106 Oakmont. Houses the office of Conferences and Special Programs along with conference facilities and a dining room seating 60.
- 17. Mabee Hall—Main campus dining facility with seating capacity for 850.
- 18. Physical Plant/Central Receiving—Houses offices of Physical Plant and Purchasing. Includes housekeeping, central receiving, and storage, plus three-story parking garage.
- 19. Witt Reception Center—Houses office of Residential Life.
- 20. Office of Admissions and Financial Aid

■ University Residences

- 21. 150 Oakmont Court—Residence of University president.
- 22. 151 Oakmont Court—Residence of vice president for academic affairs.
- 23. 146 Oakmont Court—Residence of vice president for advancement.
- 24. 138 Oakmont Court—Residence of vice president for information resources and administrative affairs.
- 25. 139 Oakmont Court—Residence of vice president for student affairs.
- 26. 130 Oakmont Court—Residence of vice president for fiscal affairs.
- 27. 115 Oakmont Court—University guest residence.
- 28. 538 King's Court—Used for temporary offices.
- 29. 540 King's Court—Residence of dean of students.
- 30. 455 E. Rosewood Ave.—Residence of University chaplain.

■ Points of Interest

- 31. Miller Fountain—Popular campus landmark, 55-feet in diameter and set within amphitheater seating.
- 32. Coates Esplanade—Dominated by Sir Henry Moore's "Large Interior Form," a 16-foot bronze sculpture.
- 33. "Conversation with Magic Stones"—Last major sculpture of Dame Barbara Hepworth.
- 34. Murchison Memorial Tower—Trinity's most visible landmark, the 166-foot tower contains four bronze bells that chime on the quarter hour.
- 35. Chapman-Cowles Fountain/Sculpture—Sculpture created by Waldine Tauch is titled "The Scholar is the Student of the World."
- 36. "Man's Evolving Images: Printing and Writing"—Dominates the entrance foyer of Coates Library. Created by James Sicner.

■ Athletic and Recreational Facilities

- 37. Bell Athletic Center—Contains athletic offices plus natatorium, fitness center, steam room, sports forum, racquetball and squash courts, dance studio, training room, and Sams Gymnasium.
- 38. Jesse H. Jones Recreation Area—Includes facilities for soft ball, sand volleyball, flag football/lacrosse, basketball, soccer, jogging, and the Meadows Pavilion.
- 39. Delavan Tennis Stadium—Eight tennis courts with stadium seating.
- 40. Pitman Courts—Four tennis courts.
- 41. Varsity Tennis Stadium—Four tennis courts.
- 42. E. M. Stevens Stadium—Home of Tiger football.
- 43. E.M. Stevens Field—Home of Tiger baseball.
- 44. Outdoor swimming pool—Includes dressing rooms and a covered pavilion.
- 45. Jogging Trail—A 3/4-mile jogging trail through landscaped grounds on upper campus.

■ Residence Halls

- 46. Verna McLean Residence Hall—122 rooms, one apartment, seven lounges, five kitchens, three laundry rooms, roof top sun deck.
- 47. Albert Herff Beze Residence Hall—52 rooms.
- 48. Herndon Residence Hall—60 rooms
- 49. Winn Residence Hall—90 rooms.
- 50. Witt Residence Hall—30 rooms.
- 51. Miller Residence Hall—30 rooms.
- 52. Calvert Residence Hall—47 rooms.
- 53. Murchison Residence Hall—31 rooms, one apartment, one lounge.
- 54. Myrtle McFarlin Residence Hall—28 rooms and three lounges.
- 55. Susanna Wesley Residence Hall—22 rooms, basement storage two lounges.
- 56. Isabel McFarlin Residence Hall—22 rooms, basement storage, two lounges.
- 57. North Residence Hall—36 rooms, large student lounge. North/South foyer.
- 58. South Residence Hall—69 rooms.
- 59. Thomas Residence Hall—Eight stories, 107 rooms, one apartment, second floor storage area, two lounges.
- 60. Lightner Residence Hall—60 rooms, one apartment, and a lounge called the "Tea Room" on the top floor.
- 61. Prassel Residence Hall—140 rooms, one apartment, game room, basement storage, dining lounge, eleven lounges, three kitchens.

Outside Emergency Phones

TRINITY UNIVERSITY

One Trinity Place • San Antonio, Texas 78212-7200