

Trinity University Class of 2004 "My 5-Year Reunion Mad-Lib"

By: _____
(your full name here, include maiden if applicable. Please write legibly, this will be printed as received.)

Email: _____ Phone: _____

Once upon a time, on a day that seems long, long ago, the class of 2004 graduated from Trinity University. After the festivities were over, I decided to head for _____ (name of graduate school, company, city, etc.), an experience that resulted in _____ (noun, explanation, whatever) _____.
Since then, I have gone on to do many _____ and _____ (adjective) _____ things.
(adjective)

For instance, I have _____ to _____ where I _____
(past tense verb, i.e. traveled, transferred) (place)

(did something... it's up to you, it's your story)

I now live at _____, where my household
(full street address, city, state, zip) consists of _____
(names of roommates, significant other, children and their ages, pets, etc.)

Currently, I work at/for _____ where I _____
(employer name, home, self, etc.)

(job title, description, business contact info, activities, you name it)

A life-milestone that occurred _____ was _____ (date) (event, wedding, promotion, goal, etc)

Other exciting events over the last five years include: _____

I admit I'm still/have become addicted to _____,
(TV show, food, sports team)
and I like to spend what spare time I have _____ (activity)

Some particularly fond Trinity memories involve _____, when (name(s) of friends/instigators)

I/we _____
(the standard statute of limitations has expired for mischievous conduct, so include the juicy details!)

Please write legibly or type – the survey will be reproduced as it is.

Trinity University Class of 2004
“My 5-Year Reunion Mad-Lib”

And then there was the time when _____ (you're on your own here, kids – tell us a story)

My favorite professor/class was _____ because _____ I last set foot on campus _____. As for the reunion weekend, November 6-8, 2009:

I will definitely be there! Sorry, I can't be there this time. I am thinking about it.
(please check one)

Attached is a recent picture, because I know the reunion organizers will otherwise choose a photo to be used instead. (If you don't like photos, feel free to draw a picture, or have your child draw one, write some comments, or add anything to the box below.)

Please let us hear from you even if you can't come to the reunion, deadline for inclusion in the directory is October 7, 2009. Please return your survey and photo soon in the enclosed postage-paid envelope to:

Trinity University
Office of Alumni Relations
One Trinity Place, San Antonio, TX 78212-7200
alumni@trinity.edu

Or download this document at www.trinity.edu/departments/alumni_relations/alumni_weekend/2004.html

Please write legibly or type – the survey will be reproduced as it is.