2009 Trinity Baseball News

The Tiger baseball team opened up the 2009 Irish Classic Tournament with an 11-6 loss to Illinois State University on Thursday afternoon.

Trinity last faced a Division I team last season, losing an 18-11 game to the University of Buffalo. The Tigers will face the University of Notre Dame on Saturday night at 7:00 p.m., finishing off its part in the tournament.

Jordan Pennington showed no ill effects from having his 24-game hitting streak broken up on Tuesday, hitting two home runs and driving in three runs overall against the Redbirds.

Pennington had previously never hit two home runs in one game, and became the second Tiger player to do so this season. Stosh Hoover also hit two homers in a game against Austin College.

Blake Holman and Nick Vera were the last teammates to enjoy multi-homer games in the same season - which they did during the 2006 season.

Stosh Hoover tied for 21st on Trinity's all-time hits list with his 10th career triple on Thursday. His triple ties him for the fifth-most in Trinity history for a single career.

Pennington, who came into the game 25th in career hits, is now tied with Jordan Reidl (1981-84) in career runs.

Pennington and Hoover also cracked the top 25 in career RBI, trailing active leader Evan Jones - who recently became the 15th player to reach 100 RBI in a career.

Evan Bronson came on in the ninth inning on Thursday, striking out a pair of batters to reach 221 strikeouts in his career. That total ties him with Adam Frey (2002-06) for eighth on Trinity's all-time list. His next out will also give him 200 innings pitched in his career.

Trinity and Wabash face off in a rescheduled game on Friday afternoon, and the teams have not met since Trinity joined the SCAC.
