Game Notes

Trinity and McMurry will open up the 2009 season on Saturday night, facing off against each other for the 37th time on the gridiron. The Tigers hold the edge in the series, winning 22 times and tying once. That includes last year's season-opening 48-18 victory in San Antonio.

The series began in 1936, with McMurry winning 6-0 both that season and the next. Trinity's first win was a 9-0 decision in 1938. Overall, 10 of the meetings have been decided by shutout - the last of which was a 42-0 win by McMurry in 1980. The last time Trinity was shut out by any opponent was 1994 - a first-round playoff loss to Washington & Jefferson.

After not playing each other for 16 years, McMurry and Trinity resumed their series in 1997, with Trinity beginning what is now a four-game winning streak. Until last year's meeting, the teams had not played since 1999.

Under Head Coach Steve Mohr, who is now in his 20th season with the team, the Tigers have a record of 17-2 in season openers - including a 17-game win streak in those games. The last loss in a season opener came against Hamline University in 1991.

In the 1998 game against McMurry, wide receiver Canaan Factor racked up 231 receiving yards, which is the last time a Trinity player had 200 or more yards receiving. Last season against McMurry, quarterback Bryant Wilson threw for five touchdown passes, which is tied for the second-most in school history for a single game.

Running back Chris Baer is approaching several career milestones as he opens his final season with the Tigers. Baer needs 19 yards to become just the 12th player to rush for 1,500 or more in a career, and he can move into the top 10 in career rushing with just 61 yards. His next rushing TD will put him in a tie for fifth on the career list as well.

Wide receiver Riley Curry is also in his final season for Trinity, having already cracked into the career top 10 in several categories. Curry is seventh in career receiving yards, needing 144 more to move past Robert Kelner (2002-05). He is fifth in career receptions - just eight back of Kelner in that category. Curry's 20 receiving touchdowns are also seventh in school history, with just four more pushing him past Kelner and Trinity Hall of Fame member Bill Hodge for fifth place all-time.
