The 21st-ranked Tiger men handed SUNYIT a 95-85 defeat on New Year's Eve, finishing off the 2008 calendar year, and improving the team's winning streak to eight games.

B.J. Moon tied his career high with 28 points in the game, nailing 6-8 three-pointers and 10-14 overall from the floor. Luke Caldarera added 16 points and a career-best five assists, while Michael Tobolowsky came off the bench with a career-high eight rebounds.

Moon's 28 points on Wednesday night pushed him over 700 in his career, and left him just over 100 points from cracking the top 25 in career points scored at Trinity. He is also just three more three-point field goals from moving into eighth on the all-time list. Moon is now ninth on the all-time list for career three-pointers, needing three more to pass Jonathan McNulty (1992-96) for eighth place.

Charles Houston added nine points and nine rebounds to his career totals, moving to within 29 points of reaching 700 in his career. He is now tied with current men's assistant coach Ross Burt for 16th on the all-time rebounding list with 433 total, needing nine more to move into the top 15 in school history.

Trinity will continue SCAC play this weekend, hosting Millsaps and Hendrix in the conference home openers for the Tigers. Last season, Trinity was 4-4 at home in SCAC play, including a pair of losses to these two teams.

The Tigers split the season series with Hendrix last year, with both of the road teams winning. Trinity won 75-50 at Hendrix, as four players scored in double figures. Patrick Robinson led the way with 21 points on 8-10 shooting, while Nick Polidoroff came off the bench with 11 points and nine boards. In the next meeting in San Antonio, Hendrix pulled off a 70-65 win, despite 13 points each from Jonathan Lewis and B.J. Moon.

Millsaps swept the season series from Trinity last year, though both games were decided by nine points or less. Millsaps won 73-67 at home, then won 77-68 on the road against the Tigers in 2007-08. Robinson had 20 points in the first game, with Luke Caldarera collecting 12 rebounds to go with 10 points off the bench. Caldarera had 12 points and eight boards in the next meeting, and Lewis led all scorers with 18 points for the Tigers.
