Trinity's 10th-ranked men's basketball team earned a road sweep in SCAC play last weekend, defeating both Birmingham-Southern and Rhodes on Friday and Saturday to extend the team's winning streak to 13 games. That win streak is Trinity's best in the SCAC era, eclipsing a 12-game streak during the 2004-05 season.

The Tigers hit 6-6 from the foul line in the final minute to ice the win against Birmingham-Southern on Friday, then survived a furious comeback by Rhodes to hold on for Saturday's win. Trinity again hit 6-6 from the free throw line to escape with the win, nearly letting a lead that was over 30 points slip away.

Charles Houston is closing in on 500 career rebounds, and would become the 11th player in school history to reach the milestone. Currently, Houston needs 28 more rebounds to reach 500 – putting him about 3-4 games away, on his current pace.

Houston is also 20 steals from breaking the career record in that category, passing Jason Morris (2001-05) and his total of 173 steals. He is already tied for sixth in school history for the most steals in a single season (47), and is only 10 steals from tying the school record – a record he set during the 2006-07 season. He has had five games in which he has recorded at least five steals this season.

B.J. Moon is looking to be the first Tiger player since 2005 (Morris, Chad Stroberg) to collect 200 career assists. Moon has 182 assists to his credit so far in his career, and will next pass Peter Murray (2001-05) and Andy Bates (2002-06).

Patrick Robinson is eight three-pointers away from becoming the 13th player at Trinity to record 100 or more three-point field goals. Moon, who reached 100 earlier this season, now stands eighth all-time with 111 – needing six more to pass Mike Cleary (1995-99).

The Tigers return home this weekend to continue SCAC play against both Sewanee and Oglethorpe. Trinity remains undefeated atop the SCAC West Division standings with a 6-0 record. Last year against Sewanee, Trinity won 70-62 on the road thanks in large part to 16 points and 13 rebounds from Houston. Robinson also had 16 points in the game, while B.J. Moon added 14 points and four assists.

Against Oglethorpe, the Tigers lost 65-70 on the road, despite another double-double from Houston. He finished with 16 points and 10 rebounds, while Moon led the team with 17 points and three assists.
