Trinity University • San Antonio, TX

Game 02 • September 4, 2009

Men's Soccer vs. Texas Lutheran

The Tiger men's soccer team lost its season opener for the first time since 1998 earlier this week, falling in a 2-1 game against the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor.

The loss also marked the first regular season home loss by Trinity since losing 2-1 to the University of Mobile in 2001. Trinity does not return home until the end of September, facing off against Rowan University on 09/26, as well as the University of Incarnate Word on 09/28.

Senior forward Ben Grossman scored the only goal of the game for the Tigers, which came in the 87th minute of play. The goal was the 23rd in Grossman's career, tying him with Kyle Altman (2004-07) for 19th on the all-time list.

Last season, Trinity defeated Texas Lutheran 3-1 in San Antonio. Current Tiger players Joseph DeCosta and Alan Llobet both scored goals in the game, while Grossman and Cameron Hogsett were credited with assists.

The 2001 season also marks the last time Trinity lost two consecutive games. The Tigers lost 1-0 to Rhodes just five days before losing to Mobile.
