

Trinity Men's Soccer

Trinity University • San Antonio, Texas
Game 10 • October 9, 2009

Men's Soccer vs. Birmingham-Southern

Trinity's men's soccer team is now ranked eighth by D3soccer.com and 12th by the NSCAA national poll. The Tigers last played on September 28 against then-16th-ranked Incarnate Word of Division II, settling for a scoreless tie after two overtimes.

The teams played for the Gordon Hartman Cup, named after a San Antonio businessman and philanthropist. Though the game ended officially in a tie, Incarnate Word took the Cup by virtue of a 4-2 win on penalty kicks.

Last season against Birmingham-Southern, Trinity won 7-2 in San Antonio, with Patrick Floeck making history in the game. Floeck scored four goals in just over five minutes, earning a spot in Sports Illustrated's Faces in the Crowd. Cameron Hogsett scored a pair of goals, while Joseph DeCosta finished off the scoring.

Trinity has recorded seven shutouts in nine games so far this season, including six consecutive heading into this weekend. The Tigers have not allowed a goal in just over 624 minutes of play. The last time a Trinity team had more consecutive shutouts was a seven-game streak in 2006.
