Games 29 & 30 - April 17, 2009

Trinity (9-19, 7-5) vs. Austin College (11-21, 6-6)

2009 Trinity Softball News & Notes

Trinity lost both games of last Sunday's doubleheader at Southwestern, losing three of the four games in the series.

The Tigers fall out of first place in the SCAC West Division standings, and must now win two games in its final weekend of SCAC play to qualify for the SCAC Tournament April 24-26 in San Antonio.

Should their current batting averages hold, Jamie Williams and Karen MacPherson would have two of the top four single season batting averages in school history. Williams was second with a .422 average last year.

For a career, Williams is second all-time with a .379 batting average, while fellow senior Kate Wright is seventh. With her .321 career batting average, senior Lee Smith rounds out a senior class that has all three members in the top 10 in school history in hitting.

Williams holds the school record with 183 hits, which also stands second in SCAC history behind another active player. Wright and Smith are also in the top six in career hits. Smith needs 16 more to crack the top five in school history, while Wright needs 17 more to tie for second.

Williams and Wright are also first and second in runs scored for a career, while Smith is also in the top 20.

All three seniors are also in the top 10 in career RBI at Trinity, with Williams needing 12 more to tie for the school record.

Wright is just two RBI from cracking the top five in Tiger history, while Smith is just six RBI from tying for the top five as well.

The senior trio is also in the top 10 in school history in career doubles and career triples. Also, all three seniors are in the top 10 in total games played at Trinity and in total games started.

MacPherson continues to climb her way up the record books in stolen bases, improving her season total to 28 in 2009. The previous school record of 11 has been broken by both MacPherson and Rachel Garrett, who currently has 17 steals this year.

MacPherson's 28 steals are also tied for the second-most in SCAC history heading into the second, though she is second in the league this year.

Last season, Trinity and Austin College split a four-game SCAC series in San Antonio. The Tigers won the opening game 4-3, but Austin College rallied for a 5-1 win in the second game.

On day two, ensured a series split with a 6-4 win, but Austin College finished off the weekend with a 6-4 win of its own on Sunday.
