Games 25 & 26 - April 10, 2009

Trinity (8-16, 6-2) vs. Southwestern (15-13, 6-2)

2009 Trinity Softball News & Notes

Trinity swept a Sunday afternoon doubleheader at Colorado College to secure a 3-1 SCAC series win over the weekend. The Tigers are now tied for first place in the SCAC West Division standings.

Trinity won 14-1 in the opener - in five innings - and then won 11-8 to close out the series.

Trinity's offense was on fire throughout the weekend, combining to hit .429 over the weekend. The team also hit 10 doubles, a triple, and five home runs in the series. Coming into the weekend, Trinity had not hit a home run in its first 20 games.

Jamie Williams was among four players hitting over .500 that weekend, and she raised her average to .378 in her career. That average is second only to Head Coach Nicole Smith, who hit .382 as a Tiger player.

Brittany Losey evened her overall season record by picking up all three wins for the Tigers this weekend. Losey grabbed the first in relief of game one, then earned a complete-game victory in game three, and came on in relief again to earn the win in the finale.

Christina Carni collected her 100th career hit over the weekend, and is one of four current players to have 100 or more career hits.

Kate Wright needs just four more to become the third player in school history to record 150 or more hits in a career.

Lee Smith is sixth in career hits, needing 19 more to crack the top five at Trinity.

Wright is also two runs from moving into second place all-time, and the current record - held by Williams - is 123 runs in a career.

Williams continues to come closer to the career RBI record at Trinity as well. She is 16 RBI from tying the record set by Ali Woods (1999-2002), which stands at an even 100.

Wright hit her 30th career double over the weekend, needing four more to move into second place behind Williams - who hit her 40th career double on Sunday.

With two home runs, Williams moves into a tie for sixth place all-time in that category, just two behind Wright for the active lead. Wright is tied for third in Trinity history in the category.

Karen MacPherson stole four bases over the weekend to improve her school record to 26 steals this season. She is just two away from moving into second place on Trinity's career list.

Rachel Garrett is another threat on the base paths for Trinity, and has stolen 16 bases this season. That total would have broken the old record of 11, most recently tied by Wright last year. The 16 steals also puts her in sixth place in Trinity history for a career.

With her next two starts, Williams will move into the top five in games played and games started with over 140 of both in her career.

Trinity will take on first-year program Southwestern University in an important four-game SCAC weekend series between the top two teams in the standings.
