Games 27 & 28 - April 11, 2009

Trinity (9-17, 7-3) vs. Southwestern (16-14, 7-3)

2009 Trinity Softball News & Notes

Trinity and Southwestern split a Friday afternoon doubleheader, opening a four-game weekend series in SCAC play. The two teams came into the series tied atop the SCAC West Division standings.

Southwestern took the opener 8-0, but Trinity rallied with a 4-2 win in yesterday's finale. The teams conclude the series with today's doubleheader.

Jamie Williams had three hits in the two games to lead the team, while Kate Wright and Karen MacPherson had two hits each. Wright also drove in two runs, while MacPherson scored twice.

Williams improved her career batting average to .380, which is just below the school record of .382 - set by current head coach Nicole (Dickson) Smith.

Wright is now just two hits from moving to third all-time at Trinity. Williams is the school's record-holder with 181 in her career, while Ali Woods (1999-2002) stands second with 167. Wright's two hits would give her 150 in her career.

Wright is also two runs from moving to second behind Williams. Williams currently holds the record with 124, while Wright has 104 heading into today.

Williams needs 15 more RBI to tie Woods for the Trinity career record in that category. After her two RBI yesterday, Wright is just two more from reaching the top five on Trinity's all-time list.

MacPherson stole her 27th base of the season, which is more than double the single season record and is tied for second in career history at Trinity.

Williams passed Woods with her 144th game started in a career, moving into fourth place all-time. Wright's next start will be the 140th in her career, making her the sixth player in Trinity history to reach that total.

Trinity returns home next weekend to wrap up the regular season schedule against Austin College. The teams will play a four-game SCAC series on Saturday and Sunday afternoons.
