Trinity (1-5) vs. Texas Lutheran (1-1)

2009 Trinity Softball News & Notes

Trinity's softball teams split a non-conference doubleheader against Concordia (TX) University in its only games last week, snapping a five-game losing streak in the process.

The Tigers lost the opening game 13-4 in six innings, but bounced back to earn a 5-3 win in game two – the team's first win of the season. Concordia swept a doubleheader from Trinity to open the season, and came into the weekend with a 4-0 record.

Christina Carni, Jamie Williams, and Karen MacPherson all improved their hitting streaks to six games to open the season.

First-year Brittany Losey earned the win in game two, giving up three runs – two earned – in a complete-game outing. She walked two batters and struck out two, giving up just four hits in the game. Annie Clarke gave up nine runs on eight hits in game one, though none of the runs she allowed were earned through her 5.2 innings of work.

Carni led the team with a .500 batting average for the week, while Williams and Smith hit .400. Alexa Calderon also hit .400 over the two games, scoring twice and cracking her first double of the year.

Lee Smith needs just three more hits to reach 100 in her career, joining Kate Wright and Jamie Williams as active players to achieve the milestone. Smith's next start will also be the 100th of her career.

Wright is 10 runs from reaching 100 in her career, becoming only the third player to do so. Williams is the record-holder for career runs with 110, currently.

Wright needs just five more at-bats to total 400 in her career, while Smith just recently passed 300 at-bats. Wright also just moved into a tie for third in career doubles, totaling 27 so far in her career.

Trinity takes on Texas Lutheran today, then will play six games over the weekend at LeTourneau University in Longview, Texas. The Tigers return home on March 5 to face Evangel University.
