

TRINITY UNIVERSITY
2009 SAT TEST PREPARATION

❖ PREPARING FOR THE SAT REVIEW: College Entrance Exams are the most important tests a high school student ever takes. This special 12-hour session will help juniors and seniors perform up to their potential when they take the SAT exam. Students will be introduced to the organization and format of the test, terms and concepts it uses and the kinds of questions asked. These sessions are designed to prepare students psychologically for the exam and to improve their verbal and math scores.

❖ VERBAL REVIEW: Will focus on grammar, paragraph construction, and the critical reading of passages. The verbal review will also address writing skills that are necessary for completing the essay section.

❖ MATH REVIEW: Will focus on the application of numerical, graphic, spatial, symbolic and logical techniques. It will include a review of geometry, algebra, translating English sentences into mathematical problems, and data sufficiency.
