

on Quality of Health Care in America and it focuses on how the health care delivery system can be designed to innovate and improve care.

The center's inaugural event, held Sept. 17 on the campus of Trinity University, was a symposium on complexity theory applied to health management. Reuben R. McDaniel Jr., Ed.D., was the keynote speaker. Dr. McDaniel is the Charles and Elizabeth Prothro Regents Chair in Health Care Management for the McCombs School of Business at The University of Texas at Austin. A discussion of the keynote address by a panel of leading practitioners followed Dr. McDaniels' lecture. ★

New Ten Step Hospitals Designated

Kings Daughter Hospital in Temple, Memorial Hermann Fort Bend Hospital in Missouri City and Wadley Regional Medical Center in Texarkana recently were approved for designation as Texas Ten Step Hospitals by the Department of State Health Services. Hospitals receive this designation for their voluntary commitment to promoting breastfeeding as the best nutritional choice for infants and mothers, and for helping to increase the breastfeeding rates in Texas.

For more information about how to become a Texas Ten Step Hospital, contact Deanna Lockett, RN, LCCE, IBCLC, training specialist with TDH, at 512/341-4400, ext. 2242, or via e-mail to patricia.lockett@dshs.state.tx.us. ★
