

Trinity University International Student Check-In and Move-In Day
Wednesday, August 18, 2010

*** indicates that parents and families are welcome

- |                                      |  |                        |
|--------------------------------------|--|------------------------|
| 8:00am--5:00pm                | Check-in and move-inFormer students highly recommend arriving during this time on the move-in day so that you have time to settle in and deal with jet lag before the rest of orientation.Welcome to Trinity! International Programs interns (these students are also called IPO interns or simply "interns") are available to help you locate your room, assist with luggage, direct you to the TigerCard office (where you will get your student ID), and answer your first questions after arrival. | WITT Center     |
| 11:30 – 1:30pm                | Join fellow students and interns for early (or late) lunch.  | Mabee Cafeteria |
| 11:00am3:00pm6:00pm | Shopping TripsHave you identified things you need for your room? Meet at the WITT center for a ride to a shopping center to purchase some basic things and/or something fun for your new space.  | WITT Center     |
| 1:00pm7:00pm             | Informal Intern-led Campus toursLet interns show you their favorite spots on campus as you become more familiar with your new home.  | WITT Center     |
| 8:00-11:00pm                  | Pool Party (plus pizza!)Enjoy your first night at Trinity under the stars at the outdoor pool. Complimentary pizza and drinks will be available, sponsored by InterVarsity Christian Fellowship. Come to swim or just to hang out and meet people while relaxing by the pool.   | Outdoor Pool    |

Trinity University International Student Orientation
Thursday, August 19, 2010

- |                      |  |  |
|----------------------|--|--|
| 8:00-9:45am   | Check-in and Move-in for late arrivalsIf you've just arrived on campus, check in at the WITT Center, where you will meet IPO interns. They can help you locate your room, assist with luggage, direct you to the TigerCard office (where you will get your student ID) and answer your first questions after arrival.  | WITT Center                               |
| 10:00-12:00pm | International Student Information FairRefreshments sponsored by Wells FargoPlease bring your passport, visa, I-94, I-20, student ID, receipt of tuition payment, $35 cash for VIA bus pass, and know your TU Box number.Browse the information tables at this fair to meet staff from various Trinity University departments including the following: Admissions, Tiger Card Office, Counseling Services, Career Services, Honor Code Council, Campus & Community Involvement, Bookstore, International Club, Library, InterVarsity Christian Fellowship, Aramark, Study Abroad, Health Services, New Student Orientation team, Campus Security, Mail Center, Residential Life, Registrar's, Human Resources and Business Office.Also, this is an opportunity to:- open a bank account and/or rent a safety deposit box from Bank of America or Wells Fargo.- get information on off campus storage facilities: Smart box and PODS | Great Hall, Chapman Center (Ground Floor) |

- choose a cell phone provider: AT&T, T-Mobile, Verizon, Sprint
- learn about public transportation options from VIA and purchase a bus pass if you'd like ($35 cash)
To get the student bus pass rate you must have a printed receipt of payment for the Fall semester!

12:00-1:30pm	Lunch with Interns	Coates Center
	Use your TigerCard to purchase lunch in Coates, then enjoy conversation and a game with your classmates and student interns.
2:00-4:00 pm	Student Information Sessions	Northrup Hall, Room 040 (Basement Level)
	Learn about campus and Texas/U.S. cultures from fellow students and Trinity staff members, then have a chance to ask questions.
2:00-4:00pm	Parent/Family Open Forum	Northrup Hall, Room 312
	Come meet some key players on campus. The following staff and faculty will be available to address your questions: Dr. Duane Coltharp, Associate Vice President for Faculty Recruitment and Development Dr. Raphael Moffett, Director, Campus and Community Involvement Dr. Richard Reams, Associate Director, Counseling Services Dr. Robert Huesca, Director of International Programs Mr. David Tuttle, Interim Vice President for Student Affairs Ms. Jackie Bevilacqua, Coordinator of Health Services
4:00-5:15pm	Free Time to change for the reception
5:15pm	Meet as a group to walk together to attend welcome reception	WITT Center
5:30-7:30pm	Welcome Reception at the home of Dr. Ahlburg and Ms. Harley	150 Oakmont Court
	This outdoor reception at the President's home is a great chance to meet Trinity faculty and staff and enjoy food and drinks from all over the world. Dress code: Business casual, ethnic clothing encouraged.
7:30pm-7:45pm	Free time to change for evening out
7:45pm--???	Shopping for things for your room/personal items/groceries	WITT Center
	--OR--
	Evening out in downtown San Antonio
	An intern will drive you to a shopping center to purchase things for your room/personal items. --OR-- Intern-led groups will help you use public transportation to travel from campus to downtown. Shop for souvenirs, see a movie, have coffee or just enjoy the sights and people-watching while making new friends. Be sure to wear comfortable shoes to explore downtown.

***indicates that parents and families are welcome

International Student Orientation is mandatory for all international students in non-immigrant status and is highly recommended to American students educated abroad. It is immediately followed by New Student Orientation, August 20-25th. Classes start on August 26, 2010

A Shopping Shuttle will be available on selected Saturdays throughout the year departing from the WITT center at 2:00 and 4:00, and returning at 3:30 and 6:00.