PRESIDENT

Trinity University, an independent, co-educational liberal arts institution located in San Antonio, Texas, seeks nominations and applications for the position of President.

Consistently ranked first among colleges and universities offering a full range of undergraduate and select master's level programs in the Western part of the United States, Trinity University serves more than 2,500 high-achieving students in 38 majors and 50 minors and employs more than 240 full-time faculty members. Noted for its superior academic quality, outstanding faculty, and exceptional academic and residential resources, Trinity is committed to the intellectual, civic, and professional preparation of its students.

The President reports directly to the Board of Trustees. The ideal candidate will have leadership experience in an educational or equally complex setting; outstanding fiscal and management skills; a determination to continue increasing the academic quality and reputation of the university; an open, accessible, and collaborative style; a record of successful fundraising; and a willingness to engage substantively with the San Antonio community. Trinity seeks a President who has the ability to lead the University with a sense of pride in its accomplishments, passion about its mission, and excitement about its future.

The review of credentials will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. For best consideration, please submit materials before June 15, 2009. Nominations, inquiries, and expressions of interest should be forwarded – in confidence and preferably electronically – to:
