Community Crime Alert

Trinity University Police <tupd@trinity.edu>
Tue, Sep 3, 2013 at 5:12 PM
To: Trinity Faculty <TrinityFaculty@trinity.edu>, Trinity Staff <TrinityStaff@trinity.edu>, Trinity Students <TrinityStudents@trinity.edu>
Community Crime Alert
September 3, 2013

The university community has recently been subjected to several thefts in the Bell Athletic Center. The suspect stole a number of personal and university credit cards from one of the administrative offices. The suspect then immediately charged on the stolen credit cards at a nearby mall.

The suspect is described as a black female in her mid-twenties, wearing a white shirt, black yoga pants and short black hair. The picture below shows the suspect charging at a local mall immediately after the theft. The theft occurred during normal business hours.

If you can identify the suspect above or observe any suspicious activity, please contact University Police immediately at 999-7070.

Safety Tips:

- Be aware of your surroundings.
- Report any suspicious activity to University Police immediately.
- Never attempt to engage persons involved in criminal activity—leave that to the University Police.

Your safety is our concern.